

B.TECH CIVIL ENGINEERING

Program Details:

B.Tech civil engineering is a 4 year's program dealing with design, construction and maintenance of civil structures such as buildings, bridges, tunnels, canals, airports, water-works, sewage system, highways and rails, dams and powerhouses.

Career Prospects:

The profession of civil engineers is the most ancient, diverse and excitingly practical. It covers all aspects of people's lives. After graduating with Civil Engineering degree, a student can work in public or private sector under infrastructural projects such as buildings, bridges, metros, fly-over, dams, aqueducts, canals, tunnels, highways, railways, docks & harbors, air ports, water treatment plants, sewage treatment plants, refineries, etc. The profession demands excellent skills in administration, management, supervision, design of new projects and analysis, maintenance and rehabilitation of completed projects.