About Shri Vaishnav Trust

1884 is the landmark year as the foundation stone was laid 142 years ago for Shri Vaishnav Group of Institutions by compassionate cloth merchants of Vaishnav cult of Indore, which was later rechristened as Shri Vaishnav Sahayak Kapada Market Committee in the year 1934.

Shri Vaishnav Vidyapeeth Trust believes in taking the nation forward by improving the quality of life of its citizens by continuously working in the sphere of education, health and environment. It has been established to promote education and research in various disciplines through academic institutions for the benefits of all sections of the society, but not with the motive of profit.

Shri Vaishnav Shekshanik Avam Parmarthik Nyas was established under the able guidance of Shri Vaishnav Sahayak Kapada Market Committee in the year 1981. Since then, Nyas has been working relentlessly for the upliftment of the society and country as a whole by providing better technical and professional education, health facilities, schools and other services. Shri Vaishnav Sahayak Kapada Market Committee is running the following Trusts, Colleges, Schools and Institutes of Professional Studies and Research and also rendering social service.

About Shri Vaishnav Institute of Law

Established in 2005, Shri Vaishnav Institute of Law (SVIL) is a premier institution dedicated to excellence in legal education, research, and professional development. Approved by the Bar Council of India, the Institute was initially affiliated with Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya, Indore, and has been a Constituent Institute of Shri Vaishnav Vidyapeeth Vishwavidyalaya (SVVV), Indore, since 2021.

SVIL is committed to imparting quality legal education through academic excellence, experiential learning, research, and community engagement. The Institute focuses on developing competent legal professionals with strong legal knowledge, ethical values, professional integrity, and a commitment to justice and social responsibility.

With modern infrastructure, innovative teaching methods, multidisciplinary learning, and skill-based training, SVIL continuously adapts to emerging legal and technological developments. The Institute encourages students to participate in moot courts, legal aid activities, research, internships, and various academic and co-curricular pursuits, preparing them to excel in diverse fields of the legal profession.

Over the years, SVIL has built a legacy of excellence, producing accomplished alumni who have contributed significantly to the judiciary, legal practice, corporate sector, academia, and public service.

About NYAYASETU

Shri Vaishnav Institute of Law, Shri Vaishnav Vidyapeeth Vishwavidyalaya, Indore, proposes to organize “NYAYASETU 2026 – National Mediation Competition” in the month of August 2026 with the theme “Bridging Conflicts through Dialogue: Advancing Mediation in Contemporary India.” The proposed competition is envisioned as a premier academic and professional platform aimed at promoting mediation as an effective, collaborative, and future-oriented dispute resolution mechanism. In light of the increasing significance of Alternative Dispute Resolution and the growing emphasis on mediation within the Indian legal framework, the competition seeks to provide law students with practical exposure to mediation proceedings while fostering essential skills such as negotiation, communication, problem-solving, active listening, and consensus-building.

The competition will bring together students from law schools and universities across the country and provide them with an opportunity to engage in simulated mediation sessions based on contemporary legal and social disputes. Through participation in various rounds of mediation, students will gain first-hand experience in managing conflicts, identifying underlying interests, facilitating dialogue, and working toward mutually acceptable settlements. The event is also intended to create a meaningful interface between students, academicians, legal practitioners, mediators, and members of the judiciary, thereby contributing to the development of a robust mediation culture within legal education and practice.

STRUCTURE OF THE COMPETITION

PRELIMS 1 & 2

All the Participating Teams shall appear twice in the Prelims - once from the Requesting, and then from the Responding Side, in the Prelims I & II - (as per the Draw of Lots). The Negotiating Pair of each Team - consisting of the Attorney/Counsel and the Client - will be marked together as a unit, while the Mediator of each team shall be marked separate from that team's Negotiating Pair.

QUARTER FINALS

After appearing once from each side (Requesting & Responding), in the Prelims I & II, the Top 8 Mediators and the Top 8 Negotiating Pairs, with the highest scores from both the Prelims, will advance to the Quarter-Finals. All the rounds in the Quarter Finals will be held parallelly. In the Quarter Finals, The Qualifying Negotiating Pairs will be allotted a side to represent - Req. or Res.

SEMI - FINALS

After the Quarter-Finals, the Top 4 Mediators and the Top 4 Negotiating Pairs, with the highest scores from the Quarter-Finals, will advance to the Semi-Finals. Both the rounds in the Semi Finals will be held parallelly - in 2 Mediation Rooms. In the Semi-Finals, the Qualifying Negotiating Pairs will be allotted a side to represent - Req. or Res.

FINALS

After the Semi-Finals, the Top 2 Mediators and the Top 2 Negotiating Pairs, with the highest scores from the Semi-Finals, will advance to the Final Round. In the Final Round, the Finalist Negotiating Pairs will be allotted a side to represent - Req. or Res.

* Details of the "Draw of Lots" to be informed during the course of the event.

THE RELEASE OF MEDIATION PROBLEM

- The Mediation Problem for each round shall comprise of Problem Statement, accessible to all participants and problem shall be different for each round.
- In addition, a set of Confidential Information Exhibits (C.I.E.) shall be prepared, containing specially drafted, factual, and confidential details specific to each side -Requesting Party and Responding Party.
- The C.I.E. for each round shall be disclosed exclusively to the respective Negotiating Pair, one hour prior to their scheduled session, at the designated Confidential Information Exhibit Reading Station (C.I.E.R.S.).
- Under no circumstances shall the Mediator be granted access to the Confidential Information.
- Each round will be based on a distinct Mediation Problem, tailored to its context. Each mediation room will have the same problem for that particular round.

MEDIATION RULES & REGULATIONS

TEAM CODE & ANONYMITY

Team Code

Each team shall be allotted a unique team code. Teams should not disclose their identity or that of their institution, etc., under any circumstances and such disclosure shall invite penalties including disqualification from the Competition directly. The decision for the same shall be at the discretion of the Organizing Committee.

Maintenance of Anonymity

The Participants may introduce themselves to the Judges in the usual manner and are also required to state their respective team code. However, the team's college name shall not be indicated to the judges at any time.

Neutral Identification

Further, all team members shall refrain from identifying a team's law school/college/university at any time and in any manner, including but not limited to wearing any identifying items (such as college clothing, ties, patches or pins) or carrying identifying material (such as such books with logos or seal)

DRESS CODE

Ladies: White shirt and black pant/black skirt along with black tie, black coat and black shoes.

Gentlemen: White shirt, black trousers, black tie along with black coat and black shoes.

Strict adherence to the dress code is solicited. Failure will result in disqualification

RESEARCH FINALITY OF DECISION

The final decision in all rounds and related matters shall rest solely with the Judging Panel and the Organizing Committee.

AMENDMENT OF RULES

The Organizing Committee reserves full discretion to modify, amend, or interpret any rule, guideline, or provision mentioned in this brochure at any stage of the competition.

TEAM COMPOSITION

Each participating university/college/institute may nominate one team comprising a total of three members: 1. One Mediator 2. One Client-Counsel Pair (i.e., one student will act as the client and the other as the counsel) Each team must clearly designate roles during the registration process, and these roles must remain unchanged throughout the competition.

Note: Any attempt to alter designated roles after registration may lead to penalty of marks or disqualification, at the discretion of the Organizing Committee.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Participants must maintain professionalism at all times.

Any form of disrespectful behavior towards other teams, mediators, or judges will result in disqualification.

Use of Electronic Devices

Use of laptops, mobile phones, or any electronic devices is prohibited during the offline semi-finals and final rounds.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Separate Evaluation of Roles

The Mediator and the Negotiating Pair (Client & Counsel) from the same institution will not compete as a single team. Instead, they will be evaluated independently, and their performance will be judged on individual role-specific criteria.

Individual Advancement for Mediators

Mediators will always be scored individually, even when they co-mediate with another student from a different institution. Their progression in the competition is independent of the performance of the co-mediator or their own institution's Negotiating Pair.

Paired Evaluation for Negotiating Pairs

The Client and Counsel in a Negotiating Pair will be scored jointly as a single unit, and will advance together through the rounds. Their roles are fixed and cannot be switched once the registration is complete. Role Consistency Each team must declare and retain their designated roles (Mediator, Client, and Counsel) throughout the competition.

Any role change after registration may lead to penalties or disqualification at the discretion of the Organizing Committee.

Strict Separation in Prelims In Preliminary Rounds, Mediators will never be paired with the Negotiating Pair from their own team under any circumstances, ensuring neutrality in scoring and experience.

Caucus

Each party (Client-Counsel) and the Mediator may call for a Caucus during the session to discuss confidential matters or seek guidance. Each team is allotted 5 minutes, totaling a maximum of 10 minutes per round. Cross-caucus is not permitted, and caucus use will be judged based on relevance and necessity. Each round will have a separate mediation problem based on pre-disclosed themes mentioned in the brochure.
